KTOO is a well-supported, highly visible public media organization with a strong commitment to local, regional and statewide program production. We operate three public radio stations in Juneau (KTOO, KRNN and KXLL), a regional public television station (KTOO-TV), a statewide public affairs television channel (360 North) and an online news service (www.ktoo.org).

Juneau is a small capital city of 30,000 people with the highest per capita education and income levels in state. Located in the heart of the Southeast Alaska panhandle, Juneau is a transportation, retail, medical and service hub with great schools, abundant recreational opportunities and a thriving arts community in a magnificent natural setting. A two hour flight from Seattle, Juneau's climate is similar to the Pacific Northwest. The weather is wet and mild with summer highs in the 60s and 70s and winter lows in the 20s and 30s.

Deadline: Open until filled with an initial screening of applicants on 1/2/2015. Interested applicants are encouraged to apply as soon as possible.

Salary: Range C, starting in the upper 30s to mid 40s, depending on experience, plus competitive benefits including paid health insurance, retirement plan, paid leave and holidays.

To apply: Submit a letter of interest and your resume to pos1@ktoo.org.
