

KYUK is seeking a Development Director to increase the success of our individual and corporate fundraising, community engagement and production revenue. The Development Director will work with the General Manager to develop a long term plan to build brand awareness, engage and cultivate statewide partnerships, increase and diversify revenue and ensure sustainability.

This position is new and will be the only dedicated development/fundraising position within the organization. Collaboration with other employees will be crucial to success.

Other significant duties include grant writing and reporting on our online analytics.

We're looking for someone with:

Proven record of success in development or fundraising.

Proven experience with business plan development.

Ability to collaborate in a diverse workplace setting.

Demonstrated ability to manage multiple events and projects simultaneously with minimal oversight.

Understanding or experience in rural Alaska preferred.

Bi-lingual English/Yup'ik preferred.

KYUK is an Equal Opportunity Employer committed to excellence through diversity and inclusion. We are considered the first Native American/Alaska Native radio/TV station in the United States. We broadcast in English and Yup'ik.
